#MYCPOSTORY

A SOLDIER'S STORY: LANA FURNISH, US NAVY

I was stationed for two years in Lima, Peru, working with military medicine's dedicated research scientists. Being in such a remote location, and in such a small number, we often felt lonely and isolated from US culture and home. Although we were not in a combat zone, it was a hard two years.

I will never forget the joy I felt when I received a small Christmas tree from the Connection Pointe Military Support Group. Not only did I receive a package full of Christmas spirit that felt like home, I knew that you were praying for my safety and ensuring I did not feel forgotten.

Even more meaningful were the hand-written letters with boxes of Girl Scout cookies or other goodies. My fellow service members and I were beyond grateful for the kind words and delicious treats. Even after the treats were gone, I'd see a number of those letters taped up on the walls and sitting on desks. The kindness you showed was felt for weeks and months after we received the packages and always reminded me why I serve.

On behalf of my teammates and all the sailors, marines, soldiers and airmen that you have touched through gift and prayer, THANK YOU for your support!
