WADE & JENNY WINGLER: OUR SMALL GROUP

Have you ever had a friend who was always there to encourage you? A friend who, you know is thinking about you daily and understands the challenges you face in life? A friend who, even if you haven't spoken for a while, you can pick up right where you left off and feel like they "get you?" Have you ever had a friend that felt more like family? Have you ever had seven friends like that, who love the Lord and are aligned with your spiritual goals and desires? Our small group is like that.

We are a group of people who genuinely love God and love each other. We are probably not a group of people who would have gotten together on our own. We were brought together during a Group Connect event and have since learned that God was at work when He put us together.

Cliché as it sounds, we have laughed and cried together. We have huddled together when life has dealt crushing blows. We have at times struggled to flex our schedules around all of life's distractions and commitments. But, we have learned that doing life is better with the joy, friendship and accountability for spiritual growth that comes from our group.
