#MYCPSSTORY

CARRIE GRAY: MY HOLIDAY PROJECT EXPERIENCE

I went through a divorce in 2011. I was solely responsible for four children under the age of 13, and I did not know how I was going to supply their day to day needs. Someone anonymously submitted my name for The Holiday Project in 2013. I was completely overwhelmed, humbled and blessed by the outpouring of love, support, care and compassion we received. I continued to be a recipient of the program for two more years after that, each time having the same feelings of relief that my kids were going to be happy for the holidays.

Last year I received a huge blessing from the Lord and was promoted at work, which then allowed me to be able to fully handle my finances alone. I decided it was time to start giving back!!

Being a former recipient and now a family host in The Holiday Project, I know the impact it makes on the families involved. And as a host, I am glad I can share my story and encourage other families with our experience. We are blessed to have the opportunity to pay it forward and continue to spread His Word and love for others.
