LETTER FROM JOHN DICKERSON

Dear Connection Pointe Family,

I cannot thank you enough for your open arms and open hearts as I stepped into your tribe a few weeks ago. The love, joy and Spirit of God so define this church. I am both excited and humbled to get to join your movement.

Mel and I are now packing boxes and planning a move for our family in December. We cannot wait to meet more of you face-to-face, to serve you, and to lock arms in this unchanging mission of connecting people to Jesus and each other.

Please join me in praying that our Christmas series, SHINE, will reach the people in your life who need God's light. I'm praying this for our new season together—that God would continue to do exceedingly and abundantly beyond what we could ask or imagine, for His glory and for the good of His people.

See you in December!

John
