Week 3:

God Instructs

Questions

1. What illustration, story or scripture had the greatest impact on you this week?
2. Psalm 32: 8 reminds us that God promises to counsel and guide our lives. What's different in your daily life when you listen to and apply God's wisdom and counsel?
3. Pastor John discussed the impact that educators make on our lives. Share a memorable moment of how an educator made a positive impact on you or a loved one.
4. Read Matthew 5:1-12. In one of his most well-known teaching moments, the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught the gathered crowd important aspects about God's kingdom. What stands out to you from Jesus' teaching?
5. What is God teaching you in this specific season of life? How are you hearing God's counsel and teaching today?
6. Read Joshua 1:7-9. Moses spoke words of instruction to the Hebrew people. Who have been the influential teachers of the Bible in your life? How do you daily engage with God's Word?

Scripture References

Read Romans 5:8; Psalm 32:8; Matthew 5:2; Luke 4:15; Proverbs 2:3; 3 John 1:4

Takeaways

- God proved His love on the cross.
- Today God continues showing you His love in many ways.
- Jesus exhibited God's heart and was called "Teacher" more than any other title.
- We must choose daily if we want God's instruction to improve us.

Weekly Action Step

Identify what Jesus is teaching you in this season of your life. Take one action this week that will help you get godly insight and wisdom about your season and situation.